

LAREAU RELEASE “YOU’RE MY CHRISTMAS”

Proceeds To Benefit Ronald McDonald House

New York, NY—Lareau, the band that is gaining national attention due to its honest cool-mountain-stream aesthetic combining an Eagles/Byrds roots-reverence with a Fray/Maroon 5 modernity, is getting an early jump on the holidays with the radio release of “You’re My Christmas.”

All proceeds will benefit the Ronald McDonald House Charities.

This original composition mixed and mastered by Milan Bogdan, a seven-time Grammy winner who has worked with Shania Twain, Bob Seger and Elton John, will be readied for Adult Contemporary radio impacting on November 5.

Lareau’s Changes debut (Warrior/UMGD) has charted on three major Adult Contemporary charts: FMQB (#10), Billboard (#25) and R&R (#25). Chuck Taylor, reviewing for Billboard, wrote of the albums “organic play-off of electric and acoustic guitars, bongos and buoyant sing-along hooks,” referring to lead singer Larry Lareau as a frontman “definitely stamped with nostalgic influences.” The July 2007 review ended with the fact that “it’s a pleasure to see hard-working talent rise to the surface.”

Lareau—founding member and lead vocalist Larry Lareau, drummer/multi-instrumentalist Darrin Payne, guitarist Pete Gool, bassist Roger Christopherson and keyboardist Anthony Brown—is the five-piece band from Western New York and Pennsylvania whose music is a refreshing and uplifting acoustic/electric trip that has had record buyers swooning to its intricate musical interplay.

“You’re My Christmas” is available for download on www.lareau.net.
